

TCS Middle School Summer Reading 2019

You will read 1 book and 3 newspaper articles and complete the assignments described below. These assignments are due the first day of school or may be turned in on Orientation Day.

THE MATERIALS

Choose a book: You will choose one book to read for the required summer reading, either fiction or non-fiction. You will choose your book from the list provided for your grade. You will need to purchase this book or borrow it from the public library.

Choose 3 Newspaper Articles: You will choose and read 3 newspaper articles. These must be from major news outlets, not from blogs or other private publications.

THE ASSIGNMENTS

Book Selection: An Old-Fashioned Book Report

1. Choose a book from the list for your grade and read it.
2. Complete the attached outline for the book report. (See Middle School Outline Template for Book Report)
3. Use the outline to write a fully developed report. Follow the structure of your outline, use correct grammar and mechanics, and include appropriate transitions. It should be typed or handwritten in blue or black ink.
4. This is the first writing we will see from you to mark the beginning of the new school year! Make it the best it can possibly be!
5. Be creative with the cover page of your report. Examples: a book "cover" that includes the title and author with an illustration; calligraphy with no illustration; an artistic symbol from the book.

Analysis of Newspaper Articles

1. Choose and read 3 newspaper articles. You may choose articles from any section of the newspaper that interests you! These articles must be from major news outlets, not from blogs or other private publications.
2. Complete the Newspaper Analysis sheet for each article. (See Middle School Template for Newspaper Analysis)
3. Attach the Analysis Sheet to the article. The articles may be cut out from a newspaper or printed from an online source.
4. To get a clearer picture of what is expected: find an example of this assignment on my webpage - a completed Newspaper Analysis Sheet with a newspaper article.
