Your child's attendance at Trinity Catholic School may be terminated if tuition is two (2) months in arrears, unless a payment plan has been approved by Administration. If a family is delinquent in tuition, the student may not attend school until tuition is made current. This includes taking semester exams. All payments for the year must be completed for a student to take final exams. Prior to the beginning of the school year, if two or more month's tuition is not paid, the student's registration is automatically terminated and the student's position will be relinquished to another student.
